

Kraków Piano Seminar

Performances, Concerts, and Piano Study in Poland

July 28-August 13, 2020

Artist Faculty

Adam Wibrowski- Professor emeritus- Conservatory of Paris
Dr. William Wellborn- San Francisco Conservatory of Music

- Masterclasses, participant concerts, and private study in Poland
- Guest artist concerts, excursions to Polish towns of interest
- Sight-seeing in and around the historic city of Kraków
- Immersion in Polish culture

The vibrant city of Kraków boasts a wealth of musical and culture possibilities. From its imposing Wawel Castle to the perfectly preserved Renaissance square (Rynek Główny), Kraków is full of dazzling sights. The primary focus of our program is intensive music study, including lessons and masterclasses with both professors Wibrowski and Wellborn. Along with three concerts for the participants, and several guest artist concerts, the program offers a unique opportunity for an immersion in the cultural life of this historic region. The seminar is an exciting program for pianists to both attend and perform concerts in Poland, and it is open to advanced students, teachers, and auditors.

Tuition price of $2100 includes lessons, lodging, and two meals per day.
Auditors' tuition price is $750

Tuition price includes the cost of lessons, lodging, and two meals per day. Practice facilities are extremely generous, and include pianos in each dorm room as well as piano usage at the music school. Students have multiple lessons with each professor, and there are three student concerts during the course of the session.

For information regarding the Kraków Piano Seminar please contact Dr. William Wellborn

TELEPHONE- 415-378-1890; FAX- 415-566-2591; EMAIL- Pianoleg@aol.com;

WEB- www.williamwellborn.com